M'FARLAND GETTING HIMSELF IN TROUBLE

Packy McFarland is on his way to Los Angeles from Chicago to get ready for his fight with "Flighting" Dlok Hyland on January 15. The match is for ten rounds. If everything goes smoothly, McFarland may box Battling Nolson on St. Patrick's day, but in order to get that match he must defeat Hyland and Freddie Weish. Well, the day may never dawn for the Chicago Irishman. In Hyland, McFarland will find a sticker who will rough it for the ten rounds scheduled, and unless he can make a creditable showing against the Grass Valley boy he will drift to the backwoods. The friends of Hyland are confident that he will stay the ten rounds and will be fighting hard when the gong rings down the curtain. Packy McFarland is on his way to BOSTON, Dec. 29.—Jem Driscoll, the English featherweight, outboxed Maitie English featherweight, outboxed Maitie English featherweight, outboxed Maitie English foston at the Armory Athletic association tonight and gained the decision without being at any time in serious danger.

Baldwin started well and in the first two rounds swang several times to Driscoll's neck, in the third, Ealdwin landed his best blow of the bout, a stiff left to Driscoll's jaw, which staggered the latter for a time, but the Englishman came back strong and evened up the round. In the seventh Driscoll placed four or five terrific punches on Baldwin's heart and sent him to the floor with a jolt to the jaw. Baldwin came back swinging wildly, but falled to do any damage. The Englishman had the better of it in the remaining rounds.
